Women!

If weak, you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from gentle herbs, acts in a natural manner, and has no bad results, as some of the strong drugs sometimes used. As a medicine—a tonic—for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui has been a popular success for over 50 years.

E 57 Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Lula Walden, of Gramlin, S. C., followed this advice. Read her letter: "I was so weak, when I first began to take Cardui, that it tired me to walk just a little. Now, I can do all the general housework, for a family of 9." Try Cardui for your troubles. It may be the very remedy you need.

Does $26,000 Belong to Woodmen or Union Company.

LEFT FROM INSURANCE TANGLE

Last $4,000 of Woodmen Funds in Uncompleted Deal With Union Fire Company Is Paid Off—Teachers Meet at McCook.

Lincoln, Feb. 20.—T. J. Brownfield paid in to Auditor Barton $4,000 in the shape of a thirty-day note secured. This completes the repayment of the entire $26,000 paid out of the funds of the Woodmen Fire Insurance company to obtain the resignations of the old officers of the Union Fire preliminary to the proposed consolidation of the two companies, which was defeated by a strong fight put up by the Union policyholders.

The next problem to settle is, who does the money belong to? It has been paid to Mr. Barton as trustee and both the Union and the Woodmen companies lay claim to it. The Woodmen claim is based on the fact it was originally paid out of the funds of that company and should be returned. The Union asserts the Woodmen has been reimbursed by Union policies reinsured in the Woodmen as one of the preliminary steps to the proposed consolidation. It further claims that being paid to its officers it belongs to the company. The prospects now are that the case will be submitted to the court on an agreed state of facts and the legal points involved threshed out.

The sum would be a neat addition to the surplus of the Union if decreed to belong to that company, and if otherwise it will be just that more coming to the stockholders of the Woodmen, which has gone into liquidation and reimbursed all of its risks.

Coad Inspects Records.

William Coad was in the office of the state engineer looking over matters in connection with his own and the Ross filing for water for power purposes to be taken from the Platte and Elkhorn rivers. He was accompanied by D. C. Patterson, who also has a filing in the engineer's office, but this does not conflict with the others, as it takes the water out above Fremont and returns it to the river just below that place. The date for the hearing on the Coad protest against the Ross filing has not been set, as Engineer Price is out of the city, accompanying the governor on his trip to the western portion of the state.

One County Is Out.

Ninety-one of the counties of Nebraska have cleared their January settlements through the office of the state auditor. The one county which has not cleared is Custer and its treasurer some days ago sent a remittance to the state treasurer, who returned it because it was not accompanied by a clearance from the auditor.

Dr. Miller of the state board of health reports there are several cases of meningitis in Richardson county, but that he does not think there is serious danger of its spread or endangering many people. The cases are isolated and there is no fear of an epidemic.

Teachers to Meet at McCook.

The Southwest Nebraska Teachers' association will hold its annual convention at McCook, March 27, 28 and 29. The state superintendent is receiving circulars sent out by county superintendents calling attention to the testing of seed corn and also the necessity of fire drills in the schools and taking of measures to prevent fire. In both of these lines the county superintendents are taking a decided interest.

Busy Testing Corn.

The pure food department is getting its hands full testing seed corn. Secretary Mellor of the State Agricultural society brought in a number of samples and many other applications are being received. Some that was put into the tester the latter part of last week is showing up well, though a majority of it is corn of the 1910 and 1909 crop.

ORGANIZE HARMON CLUB

Bernard McNeney is President and Chris Gruenther Secretary.

Fremont, Neb., Feb. 20.—The "Harmon and Harmony" conference was characterized by excessive enthusiasm. Many letters and telegrams from men unable to attend were read. Sixty-six Democrats from Nebraska were in attendance and organized the Harmon club for Nebraska.

Bernard McNeney of Red Cloud was elected president of the permanent organization, with Chris Gruenther of Columbus as secretary.

J. F. Moriarty of Omaha was elected assistant secretary, with Harry Miller of Stanton as treasurer. Vice presidents from the various counties will be elected at a later date.

Ruling on Just's Case.

In response to the query of C. A. Just of Boyd county, the attorney general has ruled that in the absence of an election for county assessor in 1911 on account of the change in the law, the old officers hold over. The county board of that county had held differently and declared the offices of both the county assessor and of the precinct assessors vacant. The attorney general holds they were wrong and the assessors hold until their successors are elected and qualified.

SEED CORN TESTS VARIABLE

State Chemist Finds Some Patent Incubators to Be Faulty.

If experiments in the pure food department at Lincoln are any guide the "rag baby" is a better tester of seed corn than the patent incubators constructed for that purpose. It takes longer of course to make the test with the "baby" and it is a little more trouble. Chemist Redfern has taken seed from the same ears and put them in both apparatus. From one lot of twenty-three ears the patent tester showed thirteen which failed to germinate at all and two more which were too weak to be of any value as seed, if the results obtained are to be relied on. Samples from the same ears put into the "rag baby" gave the following results: Only four ears failed to germinate at all and two were too weak to be of any value. All the others showed vigorous top and root sprouts. These sample ears came from Lancaster county.

ATTORNEY GROSS INDICTED

True Bill Returned by Grand Jury on Charge of Jury Bribery.

Arthur W. Gross, assistant attorney for the Omaha Street Railway company, was indicted for jury bribery by the Douglas county grand jury. The indictment is the result of exposures of alleged bribery of John A. Kemmerling, a contracting mason, in October, 1910, when Kemmerling was serving on a petit jury in the personal damage suit of Mrs. E. M. West against the street railway company.

Dairymen Pay Fees.

S. C. Bassett, secretary of the dairymen's association, has deposited with the state treasurer $22 membership fees received at the annual meeting of the association last month. The dairymen's association has the largest paid membership (260) of any association in the state allied to agriculture. The last session of the legislature enacted a provision requiring that all fees received by any state institution acting under or by virtue of any statute or authority to receive any fees shall be paid into the state treasury within thirty days of the receipt of same.

Wesleyan Wins Oratorical Contest.

W. F. Crossland of Wayne, representing Nebraska Wesleyan university, won the Nebraska collegiate oratorical contest at Grand Island with his oration on "Tolstoy." Louis Kavanaugh of Creighton university, won second place, delivering an oration on "The Bulwark of Labor." C. A. Sorenson of Grand Island college, talking on "The Hand of the Past," was third. The remaining five ranked as follows: Hastings, Doane, Bellevue, Corner, York.

Folk Petition in Lincoln Withdrawn.

The petition asking that the name of Joseph W. Folk of Missouri be placed on the Democratic preferential primary ballot has been withdrawn at the request of the Missouri ex-governor. The withdrawal was effected by E. E. Erickson of Bristow, Neb. He announced in a letter to Secretary of State Watt that after correspondence with Mr. Folk he wished to withdraw the petition at the earnest desire of the latter.

Two Buildings Burn at Diller.

Fire at Diller destroyed the two-story brick building occupied by Look & Habelt's big store; Johnson & Walforth, dressmakers; Drs. Baughe and Ellis and Look's opera house, and the one-story frame building occupied by L. P. Raymond, harness shop. The loss is estimated at $40,000, with insurance of $27,000. The store is supposed to have been robbed and set afire.

Chicken Thieves Pay for Fowls.

Beatrice, Neb., Feb. 20.—Two chicken thieves, who recently stole a few fowls from City Treasurer Bivens, fearing that they would be arrested, called at the treasurer's office and paid him for the fowls. He agreed to drop the case if they settled. The city authorities propose to make it decidedly interesting for this variety of law breakers in Beatrice.

Yeiser Takes It Back.

John O. Yeiser, who recently issued a call for a state Roosevelt convention to be held at Omaha, after a conference with Governor Aldrich, has decided to call in the invitations for that affair. The announcement came officially from the executive office.

J. G. Oldham, one of the prominent citizens of Beaver City, died of pneumonia after an illness of a week. He was sixty-one years old. He had lived here twenty years, formerly residing at Beaver City twenty years, formerly residing at Plattsmouth.

Havelock Grain Man Commits Suicide.

James Candy, a grain and coal dealer of Havelock, was found dead by his son in the loft of a barn. Candy had shot himself through the head with a revolver. Business troubles are said to have caused the act.

J. E. Dillon Sentenced.

CAPTURED A BOOTLEGGER

Sheriff of Morrill County Makes Arrest at Village of Angola

The village of Angola was the scene of unusual excitement one night last week when the sheriff of Dawes county and his deputy made some arrests. The following account of which is taken from the Bridgeport News-Blade:

"A telephone message from Angola last Tuesday night notified the county attorney that a blind pig was doing a rushing business there, and that a bunch of sports (male and female) from the redlight district of Alliance were setting a pace which the peaceful and law-abiding citizens of that village could not, or would not, follow.

"Sheriff Dyson and Deputy Fred Bentley, who sleep with their boots on and are ready to respond to the call of duty at all hours of the day and night, jumped into the patrol automobile, and with Harry Haines at the wheel, they made a record-breaking run to Angola. But their coming had been 'tipped off' and when they reached the scene of revelry the revelers had all sneaked off to bed.

"However, they raided the blind pig and roused Mike Lakin from his cot, where he was reposing with a barrel of beer at his head. When they were ready to start for the seat of justice one of the females from Alliance appeared upon the scene, and instantly the clutches of the law fastened upon her. She got a free ride to this metropolis of the North Platte valley, only to be told the next morning to get out of town without any delay whatever, and as she had previously run up against the machinery of Judge Steuterville's court, she heeded the warning and vanished.

"The officers found a government liquor license, dated January 19, 1912, made out to Barnett & Lakin, and signed by Ross L. Hammond, revenue collector, but Judge Steuterville overruled it. That sort of license may be all right in Alliance, but it is absolutely no good in Morrill county, unless it is approved by our board of commissioners.

"Mr. Lakin, who appears to be penitent, pleaded guilty to the charge of keeping for sale intoxicating liquor, preferred against him by County Attorney Williams, and Judge Steuterville fined him $100 and costs, amounting in all to $119.50. Mr. Lakin says he will pay the bill and avoid trouble of that kind. He is still in jail as the News-Blade goes to press, but expects to be out in time to go to church next Sunday morning."
